

Ormston School Weekly Newsletter – Issue 9

Welcome to our new Teaching Assistant Mrs Sahota!

This week we welcome our new TA Mrs Sahota who will be joining our Primary class. Her arrival continues an exciting trend here at Ormston of a quickly growing team, as we are expecting more new staff in the coming months! Don't forget the school dog joining us in December. We are excited to share that staff profiles are nearly ready and will be shared with young people shortly.

Children in Need

Last Friday here at Ormston we hosted a Children in Need drop-down afternoon, where our students made their own Children in Need inspired T-shirts. The children really unlocked their creative sides and had a great afternoon, making some amazing T-shirts with the help of our teaching staff. Some pictures from the afternoon are displayed below!

Remembrance Sunday 2024

Last week our students have also been fundraising for the Poppy Appeal of the Royal British Legion, by purchasing poppies themselves and fundraising in the local community. We are so proud of our students as they managed to raise an incredible £20.70 for this deeply important cause, Mr Brown might stick some more in the collection tin!
